2. Measures taken to complete the syllabus of courses and programs.		The university gives top priority to the timely completion of courses and assessment of students' performance through mid-term and end term examinations. During the academic session 2021-22 the university was closed down for classroom teaching due to COVID 19 Pandemic situation from April 2021 to October 2021 and during January 2022. The teachings of courses were made through the use of online platforms. The university followed all instructions and time line published by UGC from time to time. The teaching learning activities continued through online mode throughout the summer vacations and the faculty worked from home. Classes were taken online through lectures and direct interactive classes via Zoom and Google meet platforms. Recordings of lectures were uploaded in the university website and also in social platforms, especially for students with disturbed internet connectivity. Proctorial groups were made by allotting students to teachers and corresponding Whatsapp groups were made for better communication between teachers and students. Reading materials, Lecture notes, text books, reference books and articles were supplied to the students following the copyright guidelines through email and whatsapp as well as uploaded in the university website. Model questions were prepared and supplied to the students for practice at home. Practice classes, doubt clearing classes and practice tests were conducted by teachers to keep the academic activities vibrant. Demonstrative practicals were conducted online, as far as possible, for students of the science streams. Students were also guided to pursue their project work by the supervisors, wherever possible, through literature review and/or conduct of laboratory experiments. Proper psychological counseling and awareness were made among the students to understand the pandemic situation. For completion of the programmes, all efforts were taken to conduct the examination, especially the final ones and publication of results on time. Physical classroom activities were resumed from February 2022 till the end of the session. The university made offline mid-term and end term examinations for the students of all semesters. Hostel facilities were provided to the students to avoid their frequent travelling. All public holidays were cancelled during the period and classes were taken regularly to complete the left over courses of theory and practical. Effective mentor-mentee sessions were conducted during the session in hybrid modes. The examinations were conducted during February 2022 and results were published on time for odd semesters.
